

Course Description

This course is directed at residents nearing the end of training, with a goal of preparing for the board exam or practising otolaryngologists seeking a thorough review of contemporary otolaryngology – head and neck surgery. The course will include didactic lectures covering all major areas of otolaryngology – head and neck surgery and finish with a morning of Royal College style mock oral exams. Lectures will focus on the highest yield components of each topic. Last years' course was rated 4.9/5 overall.

Registration will include daily breakfast, 2 coffee breaks and lunch. Course registrants will also receive a copy of all lecture notes as well as the 2nd edition of "Passing the Otolaryngology Head & Neck Surgery Board Exam; a Comprehensive Question & Answer Based Review" comprised of a 2500+ question and answer bank. Registrants will also receive a copy of the new quick review text "Otolaryngology Head & Neck Surgery Pathology".

Books are available for purchase independent of the course. For more information please send an inquiry to annualotolaryngologyreviewcourse@hotmail.com or call (902) 473-7002.
