Outstanding candidates are encouraged to apply for positions now open at Peter MacCallum Cancer Centre – a place where our normal days are extraordinary; as are the people we care for.

The Peter MacCallum Cancer Centre is Australia’s only public hospital solely dedicated to cancer and one of an elite group of hospitals worldwide to have its own integrated cancer research program and laboratories.

Globally, we are facing one of the most pivotal times in the pursuit of cancer cures, and Peter Mac stands at its forefront. Together, we aim to lead a new era of cancer prevention, care and discovery, supported by state-of-the-art facilities at our new home within the Victorian Comprehensive Cancer Centre building.

Your role in our future.

The position is for twelve months for people having obtained their FRACS or equivalent and involves working with the Head & Neck Cancer Surgeons in a high volume cancer hospital that specialises in resective head & neck tumour management.

The position gives extensive exposure to all head and neck cancers including metastatic and complex skin cancers, thyroid malignancies and involvement in the newly developing TORS program. Duties will include managing Head and Neck Surgical Oncology Patients with close liaison between the Department of Plastic & Reconstructive Surgery, Department of Radiation Oncology and the Department of Cancer Anaesthesia & Pain Medicine.

There are extensive research opportunities within the Division of Cancer Surgery as well as research laboratories at our centre. There is also the possibility for private assisting.

The position involves working with a dedicated multidisciplinary team of cancer specialists in a tertiary referral cancer centre. The successful applicant is involved in the diagnosis, work up, surgery and post-operative care of cancers. It also involves the care of non-operative and palliative patients. The fellow is expected to be involved with managing the unit, outpatients, teaching, research and being involved in the on-call roster.

Salary: $95,578.60 for 53 hour fortnight topped up with private assisting to a range between $A125,000 to $A146,000 per annum (remunerated at other hospitals).

For further information about this opportunity, please review the position description or contact us for a confidential discussion.

Peter Mac offers its employees the following benefits:

- Salary Packaging
- Employee Assistance Program
- Central City Location
- Training and Development Program
